Aladdin Ice Show

VIC worked with the Promotion Company Inc. to plan a special ice skating lesson for ISD's second graders. The students and their teachers, Mike Jackson and Laura Gaalema, skated at Market Square Arena on December 1. They had ice skating lessons from some of the Aladdin skaters. The most exciting time that afternoon was when Aladdin's camel made an appearance and the students had a chance to see a skating camel!

The Promotion Company Inc. donated thirty tickets for ISD students to see Walt Disney's World on Ice and their interpretation of Aladdin. ISD thanks Chris Beechy from the Promotion Company for working with VIC Director Kathy Smith to make this once-in-a-lifetime experience happen. Channel Six News and the Indianapolis Star captured some of the students' fun while they shared the MSA ice with the World on Ice skaters.

Thanks

Thanks to Pam Lloyd, National Black Deaf Advocate President, for sharing her perspective and information with ISD's Middle and High School students. Ms. Lloyd was the guest speaker at the December 4 Black Deaf Banquet held at ISD. She toured campus Monday morning, met with all Middle School and High School students in the auditorium and spent an hour in a small group discussion with Black students from Middle and High School.

Middle School News

Children's Book Week was celebrated in Middle School this year with a variety of activities including a poster contest in English classes. The students were to advertise a book they had read. The winners were:

First Prize - David Sharer	$10.00
Second Prize - Marisha Lyons	5.00
Third Prize - Steven Showalter	5.00

Another activity was a poster contest in all science classes. Students drew dinosaurs in their natural habitat. The winners were:

First Prize - Eugene Price	$10.00
Second Prize - Kyle McConnell	5.00
Third Prize - Tony Mulrenin	5.00

North Central Association for Colleges and Schools

The North Central Association for Colleges and Schools (NCA) accreditation visit will take place April 11 - 15, 1995. ISD will be conducting a self-study during the spring and fall semesters of 1994 in preparation for the visiting team. ISD will form committees soon after Christmas break and will need the support and participation of all staff, students, and parents in this long and in-depth review of ISD's program.

In addition to NCA, ISD will attempt to complete the Conference of Educational Administrators Serving the Deaf (CEASD) accreditation procedures at the same time. This will bring ISD in compliance with both accreditation processes.

Special Assistant to the Superintendent George Stailey will be attending department/center meetings within the next two months to answer questions and to explain the procedures more thoroughly.

Keep A Lid On It!

The Health Center Staff has been collecting and cleaning hats for ISD students. If you know of any student who needs a free hat for the winter, COME ON OVER! We have many colors to choose from, the price is right (FREE!), and the location is near. No excuses! Warm heads mean warm thoughts!

Thanks Again

The Alpha Zeta Beta Sorority has visited ISD annually to share some holiday cheer with the Preschool Program for many years. This year they will be visiting the 0 - 5 Department and Kindergarten students on December 17. ISD is one of the places in Indianapolis that benefits from Alpha Zeta Beta's generosity. ISD thanks them for sharing some joy with ISD!

From the Past

A Dark Horse from Indiana

By Michael Reis

Your Friend at the Gallaudet Archives

The National Fraternal Society of the Deaf (NFSD) had its national convention in Columbus, Ohio in 1912. The election for the president of NFSD was a close race between a Deaf Episcopal priest from Pennsylvania and a Deaf photographer from New York.

The Episcopal priest, Jacob M. Koehler, was once president of the National Association of the Deaf (in 1896). He founded the Scranton School for the Deaf in his home state. The Deaf photographer, Alexander L. Pach, owned a photography studio in New York City. He had printed many beautiful photographs in the Silent Worker, a monthly from New Jersey. He was well known by Deaf people throughout America for his photography. However, the NFSD election was so close that neither man won the presidency on the first ballot.

Then unexpectedly, a stranger from Indiana, Harry C. Anderson, was nominated for president of the organization. No one in the NFSD had ever heard of this person. He worked as a file clerk with abstracts of title for an Indianapolis bank. The Deaf members of the Chicago NFSD division thought that his banking experience would be useful. The Indianapolis NFSD division rallied behind their own candidate. On the third ballot, this stranger from Indiana won the election as the NFSD's fourth president.

Anderson's election was even more astounding, considering the fact that he had joined the NFSD only two years earlier! He had left the Indiana School for the Deaf in 1883, with no further education. Many people in the NFSD thought that Anderson would probably serve only one term and that someone more qualified and well-known would win the presidency at the next convention in 1916. He proved the skeptics wrong.

Anderson was unanimously elected president in the next four conventions. He was the NFSD's president till 1928 when he declined a fifth term. He was the first NFSD president to serve more than two terms.

Harry Anderson died at the age of 78 on March 6, 1944 and was buried in Crown Hill Cemetery in Indianapolis. He was a skilled clerk in a small Indianapolis bank without any college education; yet, he served sixteen years as the national president of the National Fraternal Society of the Deaf.

Athletics Update

Congratulations

Deanne Burkhart, champion of the freshman Singles Badminton Tournament, and to second place winner Trisha Boyd.

Jarvis Gunn earned first place honors in a Sophomore Class Bowling Tournament. Gary Tucker placed second in the event.

The CB salutes Athlete of the Week Jermaine Vaughn. Jermaine, a Middle School "B" Team member, earned the honor with his hard work and aggressive play, says Coach Eric Mansfield.

1993 Varsity Football Coaching Staff

Michael Paulone ----- Head Coach
Todd Silvestri ----- Assistant Coach
David Tester ----- Assistant Coach
John Surber ----- Volunteer

The coaching staff has assembled a list of "moments" which follows. The staff salutes the "survivors" of this challenging season - and wishes it known that most players averaged 48 minutes on the field in each game!

The team was winless, but had three close misses - losing to Illinois 8 - 6, Alabama 18 - 7, and Wisconsin 34 - 28.

The defensive line, a mixture of rookies and veterans, developed well throughout the season under the guidance of coach Silvestri. During the Illinois, Alabama, and Wisconsin games the defense "clicked," and the potential in the squad became obvious.

The ISD offensive line was never shut-out of a game. The team developed enormously as the season progressed.

Injuries forced some changes in the team line-up in the later part of the season.

Caraharee Vasquez (who was chosen All-American in '92) played quarterback for the last two games, and earned some surprising statistics - 4 td's against Wisconsin, scoring on rushing, passing (65 yards rushing and 102 yards passing), punt-returning, and fumble-recovering! Against Edinburgh he rushed for 148 yards with 1 td and passed for 98 yards with 1 td.

Caraharee wins top honors as this year's most versatile player!

Marvin Cooper, number one lineman for most of the season, played tight end for the first time in those same two games and earned equally interesting statistics - catching 7 passes for 102 yards!

Most of all, the season's claim to a place in the record books, Jennifer Brezinski's history-making td - the final score of the season. Jennifer's determination and her unique accomplishments earned her a spot in the line-up and a line in the record books!

Special thanks to ISD's cafeteria staff for their efforts to accommodate the team, and to the residence hall and Health Center staffs for their support and cooperation.

Freedom Club Outing

Sweet Honey in the Rock, the Grammy Award winning Black women's musical group, thrilled ISD's Freedom Club once again at a sold-out performance at the Walker Theater on November 7. Fourteen ISD students attended the show and later chatted with members of the group, who presented the club with an autographed copy of their book, We Who Believe in Freedom. The title aptly describes these powerful and talented women.

Thanks to VIC director Kathy Smith and especially to Denise "Dino" Sierp of Branching Out Productions for making this inspiring evening possible.
